2. INTRODUCTION

Section 32 of the Bill of Rights in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, Act No.108 of 1996, provides that every person has a right to access information. In order to fulfil this constitutional obligation, the Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000 ( the "Act" or "PAIA") was assented to by Parliament.

The purpose of the PAIA is to give effect to the constitutional right of access; to any information held by the state, public and private companies as well as information held by another person that is required for the exercise or protection of any right.

3. OBJECTIVE OF THE MANUAL

Cennergi compiled this Promotion of Access to Information and Protection of Personal Information Manual ("Manual") to facilitate requests for access to information.

This Manual provides an outline of the type of records and the Personal Information that Cennergi holds, and explains how to submit requests for access to these records in terms of the PAIA. In addition, it explains how to access, or object to, Personal Information held by Cennergi, or request correction or de-identification of the Personal Information, in terms of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 ("POPIA").

This Manual has been prepared in terms of section 51 of the PAIA and regulation 4(1)(c) of the Regulations. The intention is to ensure that Cennergi complies with the PAIA and POPIA and instils the principles of other relevant privacy legislation of South Africa by fostering the culture of transparency and accountability and giving effect to the right to information.

This Manual is not exhaustive nor does it deal comprehensively with every procedure provided for in the PAIA. Requesters are advised to familiarise themselves with the provisions of the PAIA before making any requests for access to information to Cennergi.

3.1. Availability of this Manual

This Manual is published on Cennergi's website at <https://cennergi.com/> or alternatively, a copy can be requested from the Information Officer (see contact details in section 4).

This Manual may be amended from time to time and the final/ latest version of the manual will be made public.

8.4. Other Information

Cennergi may possess information and records pertaining to other parties, including and without limitation: suppliers/ holding/ sister companies, joint venture companies and service providers.

All Cennergi clients are allowed to access their own information without having to go through this formal information request process provided that, prior arrangement with the Information Officer is made, and subject to the grounds of refusal mentioned in the PAIA and/or POPIA.

The process only applies to information that exist at the time of the request and it does not require the Cennergi to create a record which does not exist at the time of the request.

Please note: The subject matter in this manual or the records referred to in this manual does not imply that a request for access to such records would be honoured. All requests for access will be evaluated on a case by case basis on their own merits.

9. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Data Subjects have the right to:

- request Cennergi to confirm, free of charge, whether or not Cennergi holds Personal Information about such Data Subject;
- request from Cennergi, the Record or a description of the Personal Information about him/ her or it, held by Cennergi, including information about the identity of all Third Parties, or categories of Third Parties, who have, or have had, access to the information, within a reasonable time, at a prescribed fee (as set out in Annexure D), if any, in a reasonable manner and format and in a form that is generally understandable;
- update, correct or delete their Personal Information on reasonable grounds (see Annexure C); and
- object to the processing of their Personal Information (see Annexure B).

Cennergi will take all reasonable steps to confirm Data Subject's identity before providing details of their Personal Information or making changes to their Personal Information.

Cennergi will only process Personal Information in accordance with the current South African privacy legislation including POPIA. Accordingly, the relevant privacy conditions and requirements relating to the processing of Personal Information will be applied. This will also be applied to Personal Information of Employees and Third Parties, as well as information received from Third Parties.

11. ACCESS PROCEDURE

11.1. Guidance on Completion of Prescribed Access Form

To facilitate the processing of your request, kindly:

- Use the prescribed Access Request Form and its annexures (Annexure A) below.
- Type or print in block letters.
- If a question is not applicable, answer as “N/A”.
- Proof of identity is required to identify the requester.
- Provide sufficient details to enable an efficient processing of your request.
- Provide sufficient records on the record requested.
- Address the prescribed form to the contact details in section 4.
- If the requester wishes to be informed of the decision in any manner (in addition to written) the manner and particulars thereof.

11.2. Submission of Prescribed Access Form

The completed Access Request Form and its annexures, if applicable, must be submitted via registered mail or email and must be addressed to the Information Officer (details in section 4).

11.3. Applicable Time Periods

Cennergi will inform the requester within 30 days after receipt of the request of its decision whether or not to grant the request. The 30-day period may be extended by a further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a large number of records or requires a search through a large number of records and compliance with the original period would unreasonably interfere with the activities of Cennergi or the records are not located at Cennergi, or consultations with another private body is required.

12. REMEDIES AVAILABLE WHEN CENNERGI REFUSES A REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

If a requester is aggrieved by the refusal of the Information Officer to grant a request for a record, the requester may, within one hundred and eighty (180) days of notification of the Information Officer's decision, submit a complaint to the Information Regulator for appropriate relief. A requester, may after exhausting the latter procedure, by way of application and within 180 days apply to a court for appropriate relief in terms of section 82.

13. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL

The main grounds for Cennergi to refuse a request for information relate to the –

- mandatory protection of privacy of a third party who is a natural person;
- mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party;
- mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreements;
- mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and protection of property;
- mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- mandatory protection of the commercial activities of Cennergi;
- the research information of Cennergi or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of Cennergi, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage;and
- requests for information that are clearly frivolous or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

14. RECORDS THAT CANNOT BE FOUND

If Cennergi searches for a record and it is believed that the record either does not exist or cannot be found, the requester will be notified by way of an affidavit or affirmation. This will include the steps that were taken to try to locate the record.

15. FEES

The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

- A request fee, which will be a standard fee; and
- An access fee, which must be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

Prescribed Fees as published under Annexure A: Part III of the Regulations Regarding the Promotion of Access to Information are found in Annexure D.

When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee (if any), before further processing of the request.

If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the information officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the required fees.

A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer must repay the deposit to the requester.
